Students and staff at Kesteven and Sleaford High School are celebrating another year of outstanding A level results.

Hardworking students have been securing places at many of the country's most prestigious universities or are embarking on exciting Gap year plans.

"I am so pleased that students' hard work has earned them such tremendous results once again this year. Their achievements are the result of their effort and commitment in conjunction with the excellent teaching, advice and guidance provided by staff across each of the Sleaford Joint Sixth Form sites. Students within the Robert Carre Trust have benefitted from accessing one of the widest A level and vocational Sixth Form curriculum offers available and these excellent results, under new tougher specifications are really testament to the collaborative efforts of students and staff.

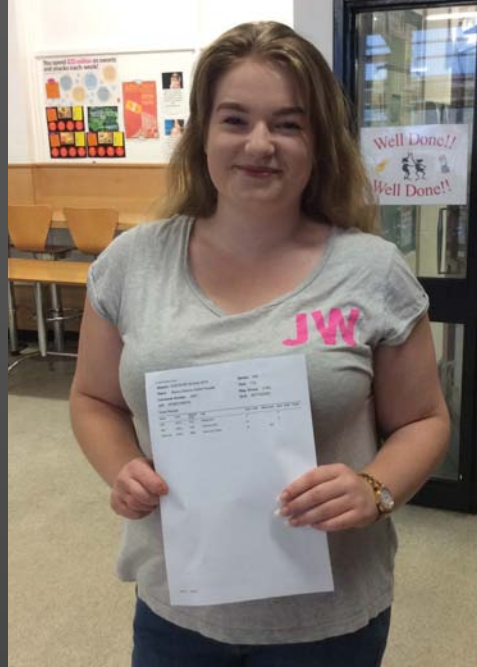

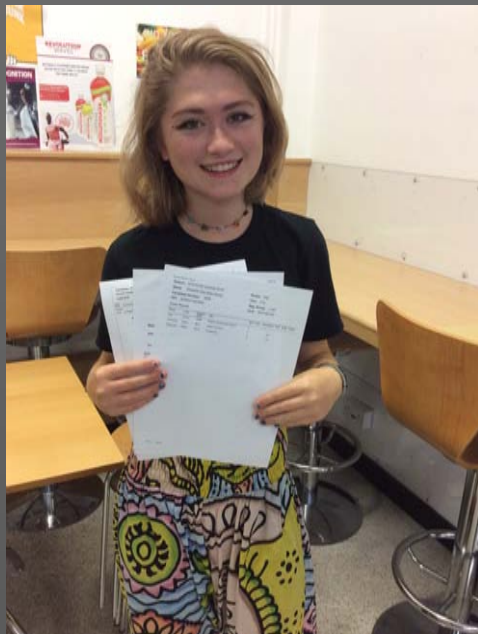

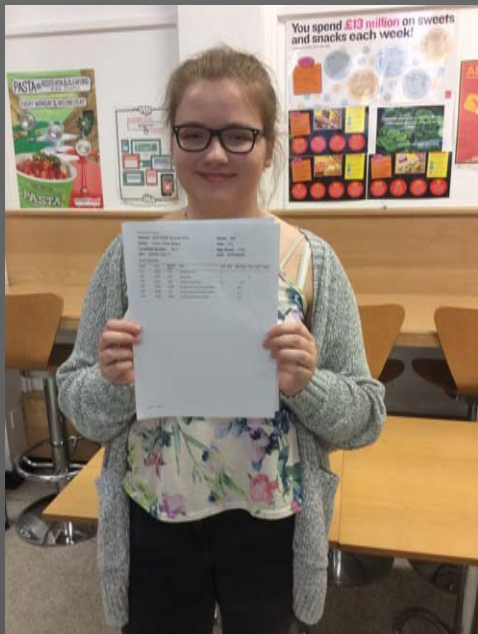

Once again I have been impressed by students' individual drive and ambition to achieve the grades they needed and full of admiration for students across the year group who have striven to meet their potential, especially those who have encountered some tough challenges along the way."

A Level students celebrate their success on results day

Congratulations to Everyone!

Students, this year, studied the revised, tougher A level syllabuses. With less coursework to complete in advance, more rigorous subject content and more examinations to sit, we celebrate their ambition, resilience and commitment. We are delighted we have been able to send them on their way having made the most of their school careers. The students pictured are off to study subjects including Modern and Medieval Languages at Cambridge, Medicine at Newcastle, Psychology at Hull and Philosophy & Global Sustainable Development at Warwick.
