The successful candidate will be required to make an application to the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) for disclosure under the provisions of the Police Act (1977). The school will confirm your identity at the interview and submit the application to the DBS, paying the necessary fee.

The 1997 Police Act allows employers to obtain information about people who are being considered for appointment to positions involving work with children, vulnerable adults or other positions of trust. The post you are applying for is subject to an Enhanced Disclosure and you must provide details of all convictions, either in the UK or abroad, including those 'spent' under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and Exceptions Order 1975, cautions and bind-overs, reprimands, warnings and investigations or prosecutions pending. You must also inform us if you are disqualified from working with children or are subject to sanctions imposed by a regulatory body.

Asylum and Immigration Act 1996

Can you provide evidence of your legal right to work in the UK? Yes No
 (You will be required to produce this documentation at interview)

If you are a foreign national and are successful at interview, you will be required to obtain a 'Certificate of Good Conduct' from your embassy in the UK. This also applies if you are a UK national but have lived or worked abroad for a period greater than 3 months.

Referees (please give details of two referees. If you are, or have been recently employed, one must be your current or last employer. If your current or last employment was within a school, one referee must be the Headteacher)
